ABOUT NSS

The College was allotted a National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit by Acharya Nagarjuna University. Mr.M.Sudhakar, Associate Professor in Mathematics was appointed as Programme Officer by the Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University, Prof.L.Venugopala Reddy on 07-08-2003 and the NSS unit was inaugurated on 19-12-2003 by Prof.Padmasri Durga Prasada Rao, Vice-Chancellor, N.I.T., Chattisgarh. About 150 students have enrolled their names as NSS Volunteers. The motto of NSS is “Not Me But You”.

On 15th March 2004, Voluntary Blood Donors Club was inaugurated by Prof.L.Venugopala Reddy, Vice-Chancellor of Acharya Nagarjuna University. This is the first biggest Blood Donors Club in our state. Nearly, 1000 students voluntarily enrolled their names as members. So far, more than 4500 students donated blood to the needy in emergency since 2004. The aim of this Club is “To donate fresh & pure blood to the needy in emergency”. Every year, Blood Grouping Camps are being conducted in our campus from 2004. During 2004-2011, analysis of blood grouping was done for about 14,200 students of the College and created 100% awareness among the male students of the college towards blood donation. The Programme Officer, himself, has donated blood for 47 times since 1995.
